The 32nd West London Local History Conference

Saturday, 24 March 2012

HOME SWEET HOME: 300 YEARS OF WEST LONDON'S HOUSING

This year's theme considers the way in which the expansion of local villages and the growth of the capital city changed the style and pattern of house building in our area. The sponsoring societies' publications will be on sale, along with books by some of our speakers, enabling you to keep in touch with local history across West London.
